RG104 E-1 Box 138 Feb-Apr 1886

Pittsburgh, Mar. 5, 1886.

Supt of Phila, Mint! –

Dear Sir –

Excuse me for bothering you, but I am curious about a piece of old coin I have in my possession and, ~~would~~ would like if possible to ascertain the value of it.

It is a gold Eagle of the first issue, 1795 and, has fifteen stars on one side with the spread Eagle holding an olive wreath in it's mouth. The other side has the Liberty head on it, the head is different from the one

RG104 E-1 Box 138 Feb-Apr 1886

3237

Pittsburg Mar 5/86

Pittsburg

Now in use, it has a cap on its head.
I would like to know how much this coin is valued at.
I enclose two (2) impressions I have taken of it in lead pencil
Hoping you will oblige me by answering at your own convenience;-
I Remain,
Yours &c
Jennie E. Kiehe
47 Third Ave
Pittsburgh
Pa

RECEIVED
MAR 6 1886
U.S. MINT, PHILA.

RG104 E-1 Box 138 Feb-Apr 1886

The 1795 Eagle is worth about $15.00 if in best condition.

McC.

March 6. 86.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 138

Pittsburgh,
March 5, 1886

Supt. of Phila. Mint: -

Dear Sir: -

Excuse me for bothering you, but I am curious about a piece of old coin I have in my possession and would like if possible to ascertain the value of it.

It is a gold Eagle of the first issue, 1795, and, has fifteen stars on one side with the spread Eagle holding an olive wreath in its mouth the other side has the Liberty head on it, the head is different from the one now in use, it has a cap on its head.

I would like to know how much this coin is valued at.

I enclose two (2) impressions I have taken of it in led pencil.

Hoping you will oblige me by answering at your own convenience: -

I Remain,
Yours &c.
Jennie E. Deibe

47 Third Ave
Pittsburgh Pa

[Enclosed note:]

The 1795 eagle is worth about $15.00 if in best condition.

MC.

March 6, 1886